To Whom It May Concern:

I have been working with Professional Mechanical Contractors, Inc. for the past several years on a number of multi-family projects in the Los Angeles area. From time of bid, award of contract, and project closeout, the staff's commitment to service and quality is next to none. Their experience and contribution is one of the reasons why my company has been successful.

It is always a pleasure working with this company at every level, their professionalism is unsurpassed. I would recommend PMCI to anyone who is looking for a company who you can rely on and expect simply to perform.

Sincerely,
